

FAIRY DELL!

A Companion to HAZEL DELL.

Wilt thou meet me in the fairy dell, love,
When twilight draweth near,
And I'll whisper what I have to tell, love
Softly in thine ear.
We will roam where fairies lightly trip, love,
When mortal steps are gone,
And the cup of happiness we'll sip, love,
Ere night shades come on.

Chorus.—Then meet me here at twilight,
For I've something sweet to tell,
And you'll hear it with more true delight,
If told in fairy dell.

Soon the hour of twilight will be past, love,
That hour so dear to me,
When all sorrow far behind I'll cast, love,
As I fly to thee.
Hasten quickly ere the coming night, love,
My fondest hopes dispel,
Ere the joyous dreams I've formed take flight, love,
Haste to fairy dell.

Chorus.—Then meet me here, &c.

I am weary watching here alone, love,
I'd never be with thee,
Could I once more hear thy gentle tone, love,
Ah, what joy to me.
For my heart is so entwined with thine, love,
It lives but where thou art,
Oh come tell me that thou wilt be mine, love,
Never more to part.

Chorus.—Then meet me here, &c.

J. H. JOHNSON,
SONG PUBLISHER.
Card and Job Printer,
No. 5 NORTH TENTH STREET,

Three doors above Market, Philadelphia.

CARDS, CIRCULARS, BILL HEADS, HAND BILLS, POSTERS, LABELS, BALL RAFFLE, EXCURSION AND PARTY TICKETS, PROGRAMMES, LADIES' INVITATIONS, CHECKS, &c., NEATLY PRINTED WITH ACCURACY AND DISPATCH.

FAIRY DREAM

A COMPANION TO THE FAIRY DREAM

Will thou meet me in the dawn of love,
When I shall be a knight in love,
And I'll wander with thee in the
Solitude of the forest,
Where the sunbeams play in the
And the song of the birds is sweet,
The night shall be mine,
Ours—thou art the light of my life,
For I've found a love to tell,
And I'll love thee with more true delight,
It shall be mine,
Even the heart of the night will
That heart is mine,
When all hearts are beating in love,
As I love thee,
Hasten quickly to the evening night,
My heart is in love,
The light of the sun is in love,
Haste to my love,

Ours—thou art the light of my life,
For I've found a love to tell,
And I'll love thee with more true delight,
It shall be mine,
Even the heart of the night will
That heart is mine,
When all hearts are beating in love,
As I love thee,
Hasten quickly to the evening night,
My heart is in love,
The light of the sun is in love,
Haste to my love,

J. H. JOHNSON

JOHN JOHNSON
CARTON AND PAPER